

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

DENROY VIGO,

Petitioner,

-against-

ALEJANDRO MAYORKAS, Secretary of
Department of Homeland Security,

Respondent.

22-CV-2649 (LTS)

ORDER

LAURA TAYLOR SWAIN, Chief United States District Judge:

Petitioner was incarcerated at Fishkill Correctional Facility, pursuant to his 1988 Bronx County conviction, when he filed this petition for a writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2241. According to public records of the Department of Corrections and Community Supervision (DOCCS), on July 11, 2023, Petitioner was paroled to United States immigration authorities. Public records of the Online Detainee Locator System of the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) do not show that Petitioner is currently in ICE custody. Petitioner has not notified the Court of his new address, and it is unclear if the Section 2241 petition, which sought Petitioner's release, presents any live issues.

A district court contemplating dismissing a case, under Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, for failure to prosecute must consider: “[1] the duration of the plaintiff's failures, [2] whether plaintiff had received notice that further delays would result in dismissal, [3] whether the defendant is likely to be prejudiced by further delay, [4] whether the district judge has take[n] care to strik[e] the balance between alleviating court calendar congestion and protecting a party's right to due process and a fair chance to be heard ... and [5] whether the judge has adequately assessed the efficacy of lesser sanctions.” Alvarez v. Simmons Mkt. Research Bureau, Inc., 839 F.2d 930, 932 (2d Cir. 1988).

Petitioner's failure to provide the Court with a current address may result in dismissal of this action. See, e.g., Abdallah v. Ragner, No. 12-CV-8840 (JPO), 2013 WL 7118083, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 22, 2013) ("A plaintiff is required to notify the Court when his address changes, and failure to do so is sufficient to justify dismissal of a plaintiff's complaint. . . . If [the plaintiff] does not contact the Court and update his address within the time allowed, this action will be dismissed for failure to prosecute.") (citing Fields v. Beem, No. 13-CV-0005, 2013 WL 3872834, at *2 (N.D.N.Y. July 24, 2013)).

. Accordingly, the Court notifies Petitioner that, within 30 days of the date of this order, he must provide the Court with an address where he can receive mail regarding this litigation. Petitioner may consent to electronic service if he wishes to do so, and a consent to electronic service form is attached. If Petitioner fails to respond to this order, the Court intends to dismiss the action without prejudice, under Rule 41(b), for failure to prosecute.

CONCLUSION

Petitioner must provide the Court, within 30 days of the date of this order, with an address where he can receive mail regarding this litigation. Petitioner may consent to electronic service if he wishes to do so, and a consent to electronic service form is attached.

The Court certifies under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3) that any appeal from this order would not be taken in good faith, and therefore in forma pauperis status is denied for the purpose of an appeal. Cf. Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 444-45 (1962) (holding that an appellant demonstrates good faith when he seeks review of a nonfrivolous issue).

SO ORDERED.

Pro Se (Nonprisoner) Consent to Receive Documents Electronically

Parties who are not represented by an attorney and are not currently incarcerated may choose to receive documents in their cases electronically (by e-mail) instead of by regular mail. Receiving documents by regular mail is still an option, but if you would rather receive them only electronically, you must do the following:

1. Sign up for a PACER login and password by contacting PACER¹ at www.pacer.uscourts.gov or 1-800-676-6856;
2. Complete and sign this form.

If you consent to receive documents electronically, you will receive a Notice of Electronic Filing by e-mail each time a document is filed in your case. After receiving the notice, you are permitted one “free look” at the document by clicking on the hyperlinked document number in the e-mail.² Once you click the hyperlink and access the document, you may not be able to access the document for free again. After 15 days, the hyperlink will no longer provide free access. Any time that the hyperlink is accessed after the first “free look” or the 15 days, you will be asked for a PACER login and may be charged to view the document. For this reason, you should print or save the document during the “free look” to avoid future charges.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Under Rule 5 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Local Civil Rule 5.2, and the Court’s Electronic Case Filing Rules & Instructions, documents may be served by electronic means. If you register for electronic service:

1. You will no longer receive documents in the mail;
2. If you do not view and download your documents during your “free look” and within 15 days of when the court sends the e-mail notice, you will be charged for looking at the documents;
3. This service does not allow you to electronically file your documents;
4. It will be your duty to regularly review the docket sheet of the case.³

¹ Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER) (www.pacer.uscourts.gov) is an electronic public access service that allows users to obtain case and docket information from federal appellate, district, and bankruptcy courts, and the PACER Case Locator over the internet.

² You must review the Court’s actual order, decree, or judgment and not rely on the description in the email notice alone. See ECF Rule 4.3

³ The docket sheet is the official record of all filings in a case. You can view the docket sheet, including images of electronically filed documents, using PACER or you can use one of the public access computers available in the Clerk’s Office at the Court.

CONSENT TO ELECTRONIC SERVICE

I hereby consent to receive electronic service of notices and documents in my case(s) listed below. I affirm that:

1. I have regular access to my e-mail account and to the internet and will check regularly for Notices of Electronic Filing;
2. I have established a PACER account;
3. I understand that electronic service is service under Rule 5 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 5.2 of the Local Civil Rules, and that I will no longer receive paper copies of case filings, including motions, decisions, orders, and other documents;
4. I will promptly notify the Court if there is any change in my personal data, such as name, address, or e-mail address, or if I wish to cancel this consent to electronic service;
5. I understand that I must regularly review the docket sheet of my case so that I do not miss a filing; and
6. I understand that this consent applies only to the cases listed below and that if I file additional cases in which I would like to receive electronic service of notices of documents, I must file consent forms for those cases.
